

CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY (VHR)

Purpose

This policy sets out a code of conduct for all staff and board members of Sunshine/St. Albans Rental Housing Co-operative regarding the use of the Victorian Housing Register.

Scope

Sunshine St/ Albans Rental Housing Co-operative staff, contractors, and board members must follow this policy when using the Victorian Housing Register.

Guiding Principles

SUNRHC is committed to the principles of:

- Equity
- Integrity
- Accountability
- Team Work
- Respect

Equity

- We will embrace diversity and at all times act in an open and fair manner ensuring access to opportunities for clients, partners and staff
- Our behaviour will be consistently truthful and honest
- We will carry out our duties in a lawful manner and ensure that SUNRHC carries out its business in accordance with the law
- We will observe the confidentiality of non-public information acquired in our roles with SUNRHC and not disclose to any other person such information. See Privacy and Information Sharing Policy

Accountability

- We will accept responsibility for our actions and outcomes and we will disclose the results in a transparent manner

- Staff will be diligent, attend Staff meetings and other scheduled organisational meetings and devote sufficient time to prepare for these meetings to allow for full and appropriate participation to any decision making process
- Board members will be diligent, attend Board meetings and devote sufficient time to prepare for Board meetings to allow for full and appropriate participation in the Board's decision making process
- We will observe a reasonable duty of care to clients, colleagues and the general public in carrying out the work of the SUNRHC

Team Work

- We will work in a manner that provides support to one another while working towards a common goal.

Respect

- We uphold the worth and dignity of all people regardless of their circumstances
- We will show this respect in our communication with clients, colleagues, staff and managers whether in person, by written communication or by phone communication

Conflicts of Interest

The common law requires disclosing potential conflicts of interest as soon as they arise. This includes financial, political or personal benefit from:

- other business or professional activities;
- other commitments or interests;
- employment or accountability to other people or companies;
- membership of other companies;
- ownership of property or other assets;
- staff, contractors or boards members entering into an agreement which benefits them personally or results from a position of conflict and SUNRHC suffers;
- Staff, contractors or board members, or their families, receive services from SUNRHC where they are involved with decisions about the services.

SUNRHC performs a range of functions, many of which could present the potential for a conflict of interest, including:

- employment and selection of staff
- selection of a contractor for services or purchases
- allocation of properties, renter selection
- delivery of goods and services
- authorisation of expenditure
- where an employee of SUNRHC holds secondary employment that may compromise their responsibilities with SUNRHC

Real or perceived conflicts of interest will be guarded against by:

- ensuring that no special treatment or favours are granted to people, or their relatives or friends as a result of their positions
- ensuring that they do not receive payments or personal gifts as a result of their position
- not entering into agreements which may benefit them personally
- not participating in decisions where they may have a conflict of interest
- if necessary, removing themselves from particular discussions or decisions; and
- ensuring that they do not, as a staff member, use insider information about the organisation or job or spreading information about a client gained as a staff member. See Privacy and Information Sharing Policy.

Personal relationships are not to influence work behaviours. It could be a conflict of interest if an employee acts on the basis of personal friendship or personal animosity to advantage or disadvantage a fellow employee, supplier, service provider, customer or renter.

Employees who are uncertain whether or not they are placed in a situation where a potential or actual conflict of interest exists should seek advice from their supervisor or manager.

Breaches of this Code

The behaviours listed in this code that reinforce our values outline an expected standard of behaviour. Behaviours which are contrary to the spirit or the stated requirements of this Code may result in disciplinary action.

- Verbal or written warnings

- Undertakings to correct behaviour, attending training or mentoring to improve behaviour
- Where necessary, termination of employment or cessation of engagement with the organisation, in accordance with any relevant policies/procedures and current employment legislation.
